

International Workshop on Benchmarking and Regulation in Transport

Aula Magna, Politecnico di Torino - Via Nizza, 230

12 December 2019

Programme

11.00 Welcome address

Andrea Camanzi, President of the Transport Regulation Authority

11.15 Keynote speech

Roberto Rustichelli, President of the Italian antitrust authority

Competition and regulation in transport

11.45 Panel 1 – Benchmarking methodology and State aid issues in transport regulation

Benchmarking methodology: state of the art and prospects

Andrew Smith, Institute for Transport Studies, University of Leeds

State aid issues in transport regulation

Ginevra Bruzzone, Luiss School of European Political Economy and Assonime

Panel 1 discussion

Juan Montero, Florence School of Regulation

Olga Simeon, DG Comp, European Commission

Marco Ponti, Bridges Research Trust

13.00 Light lunch

14.15 Panel 2 – Road and rail transport

Benchmarking for highways: the Italian experience

Carlo Cambini, Politecnico di Torino and Chief Economist ART

Encouraging investment and quality of service in rail transport regulation

Chris Nash, Institute for Transport Studies, University of Leeds

Panel 2 discussion

Paolo Beria, Research Centre on Transport Policy, Politecnico di Milano

Daniel Brown, Office of Rail and Road (ORR)

15.30 Coffee break

16:00 Panel 3 - Local public transport, ports and airports

Quality in local public transport services

Giovanni Fraquelli, Università del Piemonte Orientale

Cases on benchmarking and regulation in the seaport and airport sectors

Eddy Van de Voorde, University of Antwerp

Panel 3 discussion

Gianmaria Martini, University of Bergamo

Enrico Musso, University of Genoa

17.15 Closing remarks